

the source

Products, events and opportunities presented exclusively by our advertisers

PRESTIGE CLUB

Megan Piphus will perform at The Winter Wonderland Ball on January 27, 2018, at Signature Grand, Davie. At the age of ten years old, Megan Piphus was introduced to ventriloquism. In 2008, Megan was featured on the Oprah Winfrey Show: The World's Smartest and Most Talented Kids. Megan graduated valedictorian of her class at Princeton High School in 2010. Her graduation speech featuring her and her puppet, George, became a hit on YouTube soon after its release; Megan became known throughout her community as the "Valedictorian Ventriloquist."

In 2011, after submitting a video showcasing her talent in musical ventriloquism, Megan was chosen to be a contestant on America's Got Talent YouTube Contest. In 2012, Megan appeared on the Tonight Show with Jay Leno as a ventriloquist on a segment called "Does This Thrill Bill?" with William Shatner. In June of 2013, Megan appeared on the NBC show America's Got Talent with her characters Princess and Monica in front of celebrity judges Mel B, Heidi Klum, Howie Mandel, and Howard Stern and received four yeses from all four judges to continue onto the Vegas boot camp round.

Blending her vocal prowess with ventriloquism, Megan captives audiences of all ages through comedy, impersonations, musical anecdotes, and inspirational messages.

WESTON'S FIRST HOLISTIC SPA AND WELLNESS CENTER OPENS

Dr. Tamy M. Faierman has opened the first Holistic Spa and Wellness Center in the heart of Weston. Dr. Faierman, Weston's only female plastic surgeon, continues her mission to enhance the best version of the individual. She has designed the Center to nurture the mind, body, and spirit of people who balance a busy life of work, family and friends as well as counteract the modern day stresses of our hyper-stimulated world. It is the perfect go-to spot for patients to rejuvenate, recharge, relax, heal and keep their skin glowing.

The Center fosters personal transformation and incorporates 21st-century wellness while offering traditional healing practices. Holistic treatments such as lymphatic drainage, acupuncture, facials, ultrasonic facials, and microcurrent are all carefully designed to inspire self-discovery and well-being. Patients will enjoy the state-of-the-art meditation room, which delivers an immersive, relaxing and inspiring experience. Products from New York Apothecary Naturopathica and locally sourced skin-care treatments and products are available. Find your moment of care at Tamy Faierman's Holistic Spa & Wellness Center, 17130 Royal Palm Blvd, Weston, 954-322-2742.

CREAM

Cream has conquered South Florida and is starting to open everywhere, delighting customers with their delicious, handcrafted and warm ice-CREAM sandwich. They now welcome the newest member to the family: CREAM Pembroke Pines will open its doors on December 9th with free ice-CREAM sandwiches from 12-7 p.m. Come and enjoy the Grand Opening celebration and try one of the signature freshly baked and warm cookie, brownie or waffle ice-CREAM sandwich.